Egly-Ouriet

Egly-Ouriet Champagne is sensual, unforgettable and highly sought after, a "cult" wine for Champagne lovers who crave the power and finesse of Pinot Noir-based wines. When we witnessed the transition in the 1980s from Michael Egly to his son, Francis, it was clear that Francis wasn't going to be satisfied with the Champagne status quo. He doesn't consider his competition among the great Champagne houses, but instead among the legendary producers of Burgundy.

At the helm today is the 12th generation, Claude Giraud, who oversees the handcrafting of their top cuvée, Fût de Chêne Grand Cru d'Aÿ, alongside other world-class Champagne such as their Argonne, which is only made in stellar vintages.

Taittinger – "Comtes de Champagne" 2006 Rosé	610

Tarlant

The Tarlant family traces their winegrowing history back to 1687, when Pierre Tarlant first cultivated grapevines in the Marne Valley. In 1928, Louis Adrien Tarlant produced the family's first estate-bottled champagne, and since then there have been four successive generations of Tarlants producing wine at their estate in the village of Oeuilly. Today the estate is in the hands of Benoît Tarlant, who has been making wine here since 1999.

Veuve Fourny

After Purchasing a highly desirable block in the region of Vertus in 2011, brothers Emmanuel and Charles- Henry have now established themselves as young and vibrant fifth generation growers.They now control what is absolutely fabulous terroir, deemed as some of the finest in Vertus. Drawing on a very small pool of growers with a total vineyard area of approx 20 hectares focusing on organic, bio-dynamic and healthy natural practices, the brothers are mindful not to sacrifice the fruit for the nature of being "organic" and manage the vineyards to desired best possible fruit outcomes vintage to vintage.
