Virgin Active's partnership with Marina Bay Sands is an extension of an initiative which enables fitness enthusiasts to work out at some of the world's most iconic locations. This includes the brand's first-ever offering in Sydney, where members and the public were treated to yoga experiences against the backdrop of the Sydney Opera House.

Julien adds, "The yoga classes held at the Sydney Opera House have been very well-received and I believe that in the same vein, Virgin Active and Marina Bay Sands are pushing boundaries to set a new high in Singapore. We are excited to partner with Marina Bay Sands to launch this exclusive and probably one of the best yoga experiences in the world led by our team of experienced yoga teachers."

To ensure a fully immersive experience for all, every participant of SkyPark Yoga will be equipped with a set of professional wireless headphones.
