Cantopop legend George Lam returns to Singapore to perform at Marina Bay Sands for Sands Live

Lam will be supported by Sally Yeh, who will make a special guest appearance at his concert on 28 April

SINGAPORE (19 February 2024) – Hong Kong-based legendary singer-songwriter, music producer and actor George Lam (林子祥) is set to enthrall and entertain music fans with his repertoire of evergreen hits on 28 April when the Cantopop star takes the stage at Sands Grand Ballroom. Lam will be joined by his wife and fellow Cantopop singer Sally Yeh (叶蓓文), who will be making a special guest appearance at his concert.

Lam's concert, titled "One Night with George Lam", is part of the integrated resort's (IR) Sands Live concert series, which celebrates the biggest international artistes and allows guests to experience concerts in an up-close and intimate setting. First unveiled in 2014, Sands Live has attracted globally acclaimed music acts such as The Rolling Stones, Michael Bublé, Celine Dion and Aaron Kwok to name a few.

As a bona fide Cantopop veteran, Lam has played a significant role in shaping the Hong Kong music scene. Celebrated as one of Hong Kong's pioneering artists, Lam released his first album in 1978 which bore powerhouse classics such as In the Middle of The Water (在水中中央) and Need You Every Minute (分分钟需要你). He has since become one of the most prolific performers in Hong Kong with over 40 albums in English, Mandarin and Cantonese under his belt.

Lam's outstanding vocal flair has earned him the epithet "Iron Lung", as well as several prestigious accolades including the Golden Needle Award and TVB Lifetime Achievement Award. Apart from his singing career, Lam is also popular on the silver screen, having played notable lead roles in Boat People (1982) and King of Beggars (1992), and was also a regular guest star on reality TV shows Our Song (2021) and Infinity and Beyond (2022).

Making a special guest appearance at Lam's concert will be Yeh, one of Hong Kong's most acclaimed female Cantopop artists of all time. Yeh has been at the forefront of the Cantopop music scene for over four decades and has released award-winning singles such as Heartbroken in the Past (曾经心痛) and A Woman's Tears (女人的眼泪). The couple is best known for singing the romantic duet My Choice (天长地久).

Lam is expected to perform a string of evergreen tracks in a colossal display of vocal prowess and showmanship. His concert in April will mark the 76-year-old's fourth performance in Singapore, and is testament to his unwavering fame among his loyal fans. From rhythmic numbers to romantic ballads, fans can look forward to Lam's exceptional performance in his own inimitable style, promising a night of familiar classics and newer tunes.

Mr Jeremy Bach, Chief Customer Officer of Marina Bay Sands said, "We are privileged to host Cantopop legend George Lam for a spectacular concert this April. This highly anticipated event is aligned with our renewed focus on bringing in more premium entertainment offerings for our guests, which aims to not only attract local audiences, but also draw visitors from our key markets within the region.

"As an integrated resort, we are in a unique position to leverage our diverse range of world-class venues, attractions and amenities that can provide an all-encompassing lifestyle and entertainment experience for both local and international guests, anchored by top-notch performances from global stars."
