Marina Bay Sands to stage Sands Wellness Extravaganza with China breakout fitness star Will Liu, artist Wu Chun and music group Nan Quan Mama

SINGAPORE (8 September 2023) – Chinese fitness sensation Liu Geng Hong (刘畊宏), better known as Will Liu, will be bringing fitness enthusiasts together for a free-to-public workout at the Event Plaza on 7 October 2023 as part of Sands Wellness Extravaganza – Golden Week Edition. Following the fitness event, Liu will also be teaming up with his good friend, artist Wu Chun (吴尊) and Chinese music group Nan Quan Mama (南拳妈妈) for a night of entertainment with fun-filled and interactive activities at Sands Grand Ballroom.

Open to participants of all fitness levels, the fitness event will see Liu and his workout partner and spouse, Wang Wanfei (王婉霏 Vivi), leading a 45-minute heart pumping workout on the Event Plaza, incorporating elements of dance and cardio exercises for a high-octane session.

The multi-talented Liu, who is a singer, dancer, and actor by profession, is best known for his album Rainbow Heaven (2005) and has starred alongside “King of Mandopop” Jay Chou in blockbuster movies such as Initial D (2005) and Kung Fu Dunk (2008). Apart from showbiz, Liu is also an online sensation who emerged as the new face of fitness after his livestream workout videos gained virality during the pandemic lockdown, breaking Douyin's livestreaming records in 2022. His number of followers increased by almost tenfold in less than a month, racking up over 70 million followers on his social channels and cementing his status as one of China's most loved fitness influencers.

In addition to the fitness event, Liu will be headlining a concert at Sands Grand Ballroom, performing alongside mandopop group Nan Quan Mama to stage a night of show-stopping performances. Artist Wu Chun will also be making a special appearance on-stage to share about his fitness journey, as well as partake in interactive activities with the crowd. Audiences can look forward to an evening of nostalgic mandopop hits and exceptional musical prowess, with opportunities for fans to be invited on-stage to participate in a short dance workout with their favourite artists.

Veteran Chinese actor and singer Wu Chun has had an illustrious career in showbiz, where he carved a name for himself in the television and movie industry, clinching many major acting roles in popular drama series such as Romantic Princess (2007) and Hot Shot (2008). Wu has also undertaken projects on the silver screen, with film appearances in Lady of the Dynasty (2015) and Nest (2018). As a husband and father of two children, Wu Chun endeavours to be a positive role model in championing good family values.

Since releasing their debut album titled Nan Quan Mama's Summer (2004), music group Nan Quan Mama were catapulted to fame, winning two awards for Best Mandarin Song and Best Mandarin Group at the Metro Radio Hits Music Awards in 2005, and later receiving a nomination for Best Singing Group at the prestigious 19th Golden Melody Awards in 2008. The group has released seven albums to date, producing popular hits such as Disappear (2005), Rainy Day (2008), and Mudan River (2008).
