MARINA BAY SANDS TEES OFF A WEEK OF CURATED GOLF EXPERIENCES

As Singapore celebrates Golf Month, March sees game-changing collaborations transform the integrated resort into the home of the pros, offering fans unique opportunities to engage in the world of golf off the course

Singapore (7 March 2025) — Golf enthusiasts and casual sport fans can swing into the Singapore leg of the 2025 LIV Golf League with an exciting array of experiences and activations beyond the turf from 8 to 16 March.

As the Official VIP Hospitality Partner of LIV Golf Singapore 2025 presented by Aramco, Marina Bay Sands is bringing golf into the city with a week-long celebration that includes exclusive community events and themed dining experiences on property.

This allows fans to take their experience to new levels of excitement and engagement as they witness the pros go head-to-head on Sentosa's Serapong Golf Course and gruelling Dragon's Tail. The star-studded field this year features 14 major champions with a combined 28 major victories including 2023 Masters champion Jon Rahm, five-time major champion and 2023 PGA Championship winner Brooks Koepka, 2024 U.S. Open Champion Bryson DeChambeau and six-time major winner and World Golf Hall of Famer Phil Mickelson.

The partnership with LIV Golf Singapore 2025 presented by Aramco comes soon after HSBC Women's World Championship, which saw Marina Bay Sands as the tournament's

Entertainment and Lifestyle partner activating ambassadors Minjee Lee and 'Lily' Muni He for a series of activations.

"We are thrilled to collaborate with such globally recognised tournaments here in Singapore to usher in an electrifying month of golf here at Marina Bay Sands. LIV Golf has been a revolutionary force in the sporting scene as they continue to spearhead new ways in which the game can be played, watched and experienced. Through our fresh slate of specially curated offerings across the integrated resort, we cannot wait to further support their efforts in energising the sport," said Jeremy Bach, Senior Vice President and Chief Customer Officer of Marina Bay Sands.

Teeing off first from the 8 to 13 March are a dedicated putting station and VR golf simulator that will offer a fun and engaging challenge for both seasoned golfers and curious novices alike located near Black Tap Craft Burgers and Bar and Level 2 of The Shoppes (North Side).

From 10 to 16 March, Marina Bay Sands has curated a slate of golf-themed F&B creations that encapsulate the essence of the sport.

Wakuda basks in the celebrations with a refreshing cocktail creation – Birdie

Wakuda presents a special cocktail creation, The Birdie, which is a vibrant concoction that blends the crisp elegance of Haku Vodka with the citrus zest of Yuzu sake, elevated by a house-made shiso sake syrup. Topped with fresh lime juice, yuzu, cucumber, and basil completes this invigorating sip, making it the perfect 19th hole celebration.

To celebrate the month of golf, Yardbird Southern Table & Bar offers a refreshing cocktail – The Fairway Cocktail

PRESS RELEASE | FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

For those seeking a more robust drink, Yardbird Southern Table & Bar presents "The Fairway" – a tropical and refreshing creation that features a smooth foundation of Buffalo Trace Bourbon, expertly paired with the warmth of spiced rum. A vibrant green hue comes courtesy of Midori, while kiwi puree and pineapple juice add a sweet punch to the drink. The cocktail is finished with Yuzu and simple syrup that provide a balanced citrus and sweet finish, ensuring every sip is a hole-in-one.

Maison Boulud serves up Eagle Sour Cocktail, named after the rare and coveted "eagle" achievement in golf

Maison Boulud elevates the golfing experience with the "The Eagle Sour," a sophisticated and meticulously crafted drink. The citrusy delight features white rum and orange liqueur, perfectly balanced by a house-made pandan and cucumber syrup. The addition of fresh lime juice and egg white creates a tangy creaminess to give a smooth and refreshing sip. Named after the rare and coveted "eagle" achievement in golf, this cocktail marks an exceptional way to celebrate golf month.

Origin + Bloom curates a selection of themed pastries and desserts for the month of March

PRESS RELEASE | FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Those with a penchant for sweet treats can head over to Origin + Bloom, as the café offers a delectable array of golf themed pastries and desserts. Indulge in the vibrant "Tarte au Kaffir + Finger Lime," a citrusy delight that perfectly balances tart and sweet. Experience the unique "Éclair Kuro Goma + Matcha Uji," a harmonious blend of earthy black sesame and vibrant matcha. For chocolate lovers, the "Gateaux Amazonia 70% Choco Spearmint" will provide a rich yet refreshing experience. Finally, savour the delicate "Millefeuille Corsiglia Pistachio + Griottine," a layered masterpiece featuring the nutty richness of pistachio and the tart sweetness of Griottine cherries.

Indulge in Bread Street Kitchen's Exotic Vacherin, a dessert topped with tangy kiwi sorbet

Bread Street Kitchen joins the celebration with a refreshing dessert, the "Exotic Vacherin", a layered dessert that showcases the vibrant flavours of the tropics, beginning with marinated pineapple, followed by a light and airy passionfruit and mango foam and topped with pineapple and kiwi sorbets that provide a refreshing chill. The addition of a lime meringue contributes a zesty tang, while a clear pineapple consommé ties all the elements together to create a palate-pleasing finale. The final product, with its prominent green hues from the kiwi sorbet echoes the lush greens synonymous with the sport.

The Club offers a special 2-course set, which includes beef sliders and a cocktail

The Club at Marina Bay Sands presents a dynamic duo of themed delights, beginning with the "Putter" Slider which presents a modern take on a classic slider. Featuring a beef patty, melted cheese, crispy bacon, and sweet barbequed pineapple, the slider is elevated with creamy avocado and sandwiched between charcoal buns. Secondly, the "Hole in One" Float captures the excitement of a perfect shot. The cocktail is a creamy, tropical concoction which blends vodka, honeydew cordial, and coconut liqueur, finished with a scoop of vanilla ice cream and a touch of edible gold dust for a luxurious touch. The finishing flourish is a custom-made LIV Golf flag, making it a celebratory tribute to the elusive hole-in-one.

Marina Bay Sands lights up in green

To cap off this month of golf at Marina Bay Sands, the integrated resort's iconic façade will be lit up to pay homage to LIV's signature vibrant neon green hue, transforming the property into a striking golf fan's spectacle. From 12 to 16 March, the three hotel towers and underbelly will be illuminated to create a stunning display against the city skyline.

In Conversation With: Minjee Lee

In true spirit of the month of golf, Marina Bay Sands kicked off the first In Conversation With session for the year with Australian golfer Minjee Lee, as part of Marina Bay Sands' ongoing commitment to support the local community.

PRESS RELEASE | FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Minjee Lee shared personal anecdotes and advice with local budding golf talents from the Singapore Golf Association

The audience comprised 28 local budding golf talents aged 7 to 20 from the Singapore Golf Association, who had a unique opportunity to engage in an intimate Q&A with the 10-time LPGA Tour champion and three-time Olympic athlete.

At the end of the session, the young golfers ran up to the front of stage to request for autographs and selfies from their idol.

"I am very inspired by Minjee Lee's determination and commitment. When asked if she has thought about quitting golf, she says that quitting has never been an option for her, no matter how hard the game gets. I want to be like her and play golf for as long as I can, by training hard and giving my best in all tournaments," said Frederick Seng, an eight-year-old golfer from the Singapore Golf Association's Future Squad.

Lee became the first female brand ambassador of Marina Bay Sands' parent company, Las Vegas Sands, in 2023. Her role, as ambassador, aims to empower communities through the success of female champions as role models for young athletes. Lee had also engaged another group of 10 junior golfers from the Singapore Golf Association in October 2024, where they were among the first to enjoy a swing in one of Marina Bay Sands' Paiza Collection suites equipped with a golf simulator.

In Conversation With is one of the many ways Marina Bay Sands empowers the community through its community engagement programme, Sands Cares. Since 2014, 'In Conversation With' has offered young adults a platform to engage with and be inspired by over 40 leading figures who have a wealth of knowledge and experience in their respective career fields. These include celebrity chefs, film directors, producers and TV personalities.
