MARINA BAY SANDS UNVEILS A SPECTACULAR LINEUP OF ENTERTAINMENT THIS FESTIVE SEASON

The integrated resort will host a series of concerts and welcome the return of its premier concert series Sands Live Season this December

Sands Live Season returns with an all-star lineup of music icons this December

Singapore (3 November 2025) – The stage will be set for a spectacular constellation of entertainment at Marina Bay Sands as the integrated resort (IR) plays host to six electrifying concerts – each headlined by celebrated artistes from Taiwan, Hong Kong and Australia from December to January.

For its highly anticipated return, Marina Bay Sands' premier concert series, Sands Live Season, will once again take centre stage at Sands Grand Ballroom at the IR's Expo & Convention Centre with an all-star artiste lineup. From 20 December to 4 January, music fans can look forward to show-stopping performances from renowned Chinese singer Hailai Amu (海来阿木), veteran Taiwanese singers Tiger Huang (黃小琥) and Ricky Hsiao (萧煌奇), Cantopop vocal powerhouses Frances Yip (葉麗儀), Maria Cordero (瑪俐亞), Elisa Chan (陳潔靈), Hong Kong legendary singer Kenny Bee (钟镇涛), and iconic Australian soft rock duo Air Supply, who are performing as part of their 50th anniversary tour.

The resort will also be hosting the New Year's Eve show with South Korean superstar RAIN, who will return to Marina Bay Sands for a one-night-only performance to usher in the New Year on a high note. RAIN will be performing as part of the SINGLAND FESTIVAL from 31 December to 3 January, which will also feature other performances by Grammy-Award winning R&B star NE-YO, Mandopop powerhouse Terry Lin and multi-talented Chinese Canadian artist Henry Lau.

Hailai Amu will be bringing his soul-stirring world tour performances to Marina Bay Sands

Sands Live Season will kick off on 20 December with rising star singer in the Chinese music scene Hailai Amu, who will bring his soul-stirring brand of music to Singapore for the grand finale of his 2025 overseas tour. Hailai Amu Live in Singapore is part of his upgraded tour featuring a more refined stage production and deeper emotional resonance, and follows the resounding success of his 2024 tour across 20 cities in China. With an extensive repertoire of hit songs, Hailai Amu has amassed over 120 billion streams across digital platforms and is admired for his distinctive voice and magnetic stage presence.
