Hong Kong singer Andy Hui to stage first concert at Marina Bay Sands this July

Andy Hui will be performing live in Singapore at Marina Bay Sands for the first time this July

SINGAPORE (23 May 2023) – Hong Kong singer Andy Hui is making his way to Singapore to perform live at Marina Bay Sands for the first time on 1 July. Hui will take the stage to bring fans an evening of sheer exhilaration with his euphonious vocals and unmatched showmanship.

Hui rose to stardom when he emerged first runner-up in the 5th Annual New Talent Singing Awards in 1986. This pivotal moment catapulted him into the spotlight, capturing the hearts of audiences with his undeniable talent. His career reached stellar status when he was heralded as the Best Male Artiste at the 2001 Jade Solid Gold Awards, allowing him to firmly establish himself as one of Hong Kong's top artists in the music industry. He has since gone on to release an extensive repertoire of Cantonese and Mandarin hits, and has amassed numerous prestigious awards and nominations throughout his illustrious career. Apart from music, Hui is also an accomplished actor on the silver screen with a long list of films to his credit, testament to his dedication and artistry.

Hui's upcoming concert in Singapore is part of his HUMAN LIVE world tour, which marked his first solo concert comeback after a three-year hiatus. Fans in eager anticipation to catch Hui's live in concert at Sands Grand Ballroom can look forward to the popstar serenading audiences with his biggest hits and newer tunes such as 'Lover A' (情人甲), 'Am I Really In Your Heart' (其實你心裡有沒有我) and more.

Tickets to Andy Hui's concert, HUMAN LIVE, will go on sale on 24 May via Marina Bay Sands' website. Sands Rewards LifeStyle members will enjoy 10% off ticket prices. For more ticketing information, please refer to the table below.
