Exclusive gastronomic specials at Marina Bay Sands

Singapore (17 August 2020) – This August, Marina Bay Sands continues to re-open its signature restaurants with LAVO Italian Restaurant & Rooftop Bar and European patisserie Origin + Bloom being the latest to return to the integrated resort’s stable of dining gems. This is followed by celebrity chef restaurant ADRIFT by David Myers, which opened its doors last weekend (15 August) with a brand-new Yakitori offering, refreshed a la carte dishes, and a glorious weekend brunch.

From August to September, gourmands can also look forward to a repertoire of refreshed offerings and limited-time specials, including a revamped breakfast menu at Bread Street Kitchen by Gordon Ramsay, a new Late Afternoon menu at Mott 32, and RISE’s one-week only Crabs Special buffet.

Dining in the ‘New Normal’ at Marina Bay Sands will be synonymous with exceptional food and service, albeit in a new environment with safe dining measures in place. Dining reservations are required, and diners are capped at groups of five or fewer per table. For more information on Marina Bay Sands’ property-wide hygiene and safety measures, please visit www.marinabaysands.com/SandsClean.

ADRIFT by David Myers re-opens with new Yakitori menu and modern dishes

Celebrity chef restaurant ADRIFT by David Myers re-opened last weekend (15 August) and welcomed diners back with new menus featuring modern Asian dishes rooted in the Japanese cooking philosophy of elegance and simplicity. Diners can look forward to dishes that draw references from Chef Myers’ travels and love for thoughtfully sourced seasonal ingredients, prepared using condiments and sauces made in-house.
ADRIFT presents a refreshed menu of thoughtfully sourced produce (from L to R): Local barramundi, Spencer Gulf prawns

Culinary highlights include the local barramundi (S$38++), featuring local catch from Kühlbarra, the only deep-sea pen in Singapore, served with a rich broth made from roasted fish bones and lifted with fragrant lemongrass. Also prepared using a nose-to-tail cooking method is the sustainable Spencer Gulf prawn (S$22++). Prawn heads and shells are used to flavour the base sauce, while prawns are served fresh off the wood-fired grill, topped with a sheer layer of lardo which slowly melts into the prawns for a truly umami treat. Another dish not to be missed is the organic chicken (S$34++) – a juicy local Sakura chicken breast meat is pan-fried till fragrant and finished with homemade cultured butter and savoury sauce made using rice foam, grilled baby bok choy, puffed rice and a superior chicken stock.

Enjoy a selection of over 30 freshly grilled yakitori skewers at ADRIFT

Also new at ADRIFT is a brand-new Yakitori menu offering a diverse array of over 30 yakitori skewers freshly grilled upon order. Diners are invited to savour adventurous flavour combinations under the ‘special skewers’ selection, which include the char siu quail (S$7++), uni roe in celeriac (S$8++), octopus and pickled lemon (S$7++), slipper lobster in fermented cabbage (S$8++), as well as potato and caviar (S$7++). The menu also offers all-time favourites under the ‘classic skewers’ selection, such as the tender pork collar (S$4++), chicken wing (S$4++), butcher steak (S$5++) and ox tongue (S$5++).

Complete the authentic Yakitori experience with Japanese craft beers and Highball in a new menu featuring over 30 bourbon and whisky options. This includes rare Japanese whiskies such as Hibiki 17 and Suntory Yamazaki 12. For all Fridays in the month of August, ADRIFT will celebrate the launch of its Yakitori menu with a pairing promotion. Guests can enjoy 10 classic skewers with a glass of Suntory draft beer at S$25++, or five special skewers with a glass of Sun Peace Whiskey at only S$35++. For more information, visit marinabaysands.com/restaurants/adrift.html.

ADrift’s unique brunch offerings include the goat’s curd waffle served with bacon ice cream and the broken ricotta pancake

To sweeten the deal on weekends, enjoy ADRIFT’s revamped weekend brunch menu offering a selection of over 15 unique brunch creations and classics. In addition to brunch staples such as New England lobster frittata (S$24++) and king crab omelette (S$26++), diners can delight in ADRIFT’s original creations such as the goat’s curd waffle (S$21++) with smoked maple syrup and bacon ice cream, as well as the broken ricotta pancake (S$19++) with crunchy whisky walnuts, honeycomb and crisp apple slices. Free-spirited diners can opt for the Have it Chef’s way brunch (S$45++; for two hours) and let the team of chefs curate a line-up of divine creations for a wondrous brunch experience. Match the dishes with ADRIFT’s free flow beverage package¹ (supplement S$70++) to keep the glasses flowing.

For reservations, call 6688 5657 or visit marinabaysands.com/restaurants/adrift.html.

Enjoy breakfast by the bay at Bread Street Kitchen by Gordon Ramsay (8.30am–11am, weekends)

A glorious breakfast spread awaits at Bread Street Kitchen: smoked salmon bagel and avocado on toast

Indulge in a scenic weekend breakfast by the Marina Bay waterfront with Bread Street Kitchen’s revamped classic English breakfast menu. The lively and vibrant restaurant has recently expanded its alfresco dining space, making it the ideal venue for a leisurely breakfast. In addition to all-time favourites such as eggs benedict royale (S$19++) and buttermilk pancakes (S$18++), the restaurant is dishing out a series of new breakfast offerings. Savour the beef brisket sandwich (S$22++), featuring tender slices of beef, pickled jalapeño, a sunny side-up and cheddar packed in toasted chewy ciabatta, served with a side of chips. The smoked salmon bagel (S$19++) delights with its classic combination of creamy scrambled eggs, smoked salmon, crème fraîche and chives, while the avocado on toast (S$16++) boasts wholesome flavours and textures with crushed avocados, a soft poached egg, crisp cucumber ribbons, and pickled ginger atop a sourdough.

Pair the savouries with a glass of BSK Blends and take your pick from six delicious homemade smoothies for an energy boost. Rich in vitamins and nutrients, the Immunity (S$11++) is packed with the goodness of citrus orange, celery, carrots, ginger, and passionfruit for a light tropical beverage. Guests can also enjoy the cacao avocado smoothie (S$11++), a velvety blend of bananas with creamy avocado, cacao powder and a dash of cinnamon, as well as the honey-granola smoothie (S$11++), made with banana, strawberry, home-made granola, and honey.

Indulgent milkshakes such as the baileys milkshake with butterscotch liqueur and soft serve ice cream (S$19++) and a range of fresh brews and organic teas are also available.

Satisfy your burger craving with Bread Street Kitchen’s National Burger Week specials

From 26 to 31 August, celebrate National Burger Week at Bread Street Kitchen as the restaurant introduces three limited-time burger specials. Sink your teeth into the tantalising pulled pork burger (S$20++), and savour the soft-shell crab burger (S$20++) with a whole crispy soft-shell crab blanketed in chilli crab mayo. Meat lovers will enjoy the flavourful lamb burger (S$20++) – a spiced lamb merguez patty accompanied with smoked feta cheese, tzatziki sauce and marinated cucumber between a refreshing mint brioche. Complete the meal with a side of homemade chips, mac and cheese, or seasonal greens at S$5++ each. Diners can opt for the burger slider sampler (S$56++) to enjoy the best of all three.

KOMA celebrates Keirō no Hi (Respect for the Aged Day) (21 September)

Celebrate Keirō no Hi or Respect for the Aged Day at KOMA
On 21 September, KOMA Japanese Restaurant & Sushi Bar will honour Keirō no Hi or Respect for the Aged Day, a Japanese public holiday celebrated annually to honour elderly citizens, by offering diners aged 65 & above a 30 per cent discount off their total dining bill. This special occasion traces its origins to 1947, when 15 September was proclaimed “Old Folks’ Day” (Toshiyori no Hi) in Hyogo Prefecture to honour the elderly. Its popularity spread nationwide and in 1966, it took its present name of Keirō no Hi. To redeem the 30 per cent discount at KOMA, one member in the dining group must be aged 65 and above (born in 1955 or earlier) and show official proof of age. A table reservation is required at least 12 hours in advance for this promotion.

For reservations, call 6688 8690 or e-mail koma.reservations@marinabaysands.com
