Chef Josh Chua (Executive Chef, Yardbird Southern Table & Bar)

Growing up amongst two generations of hawkers in Terengganu, Malaysia, Executive Chef Josh Chua's love for food was developed from young, as he spent countless hours experimenting with different ingredients in his kitchen. His passion led him to explore the world of Western culinary arts at KDU College, in partnership with the IMI International Management Institute Switzerland, where he graduated with a diploma with distinction in Professional Chef Training.

Josh started his career in numerous fine dining establishments specialising in Italian and French cuisine, from Prego at The Westin Hotel Kuala Lumpur in 2004, before moving to Singapore in 2007 to work at the former Raffles Grill at Raffles Hotel Singapore. He then spent the next decade honing his craft at the former Guy Savoy at Marina Bay Sands, Concetto by Saveur, and San Bistro. Inspired by his mentors, Josh's desire to pay his knowledge forward saw him take a year-long break from the kitchen to cultivate young individuals studying Western culinary arts at the Institute of Technical Education in Singapore.

In August 2017, Josh ventured into a new arena of Western cooking by joining classic American restaurant Yardbird Southern Table & Bar at Marina Bay Sands as Executive Sous Chef, where he went on to helm the role of Executive Chef in January 2022. Today, he continues to mentor a brigade of more than 15 chefs and draws on his expertise to create menus that present the most authentic classic American flavours.
