

The music of Hans Zimmer vs John Williams will light up the MasterCard Theatres at Marina Bay Sands in March 2017

Singapore, 13 January 2017 – Singapore audiences will be in for a spectacular orchestral experience with a new classical concert direct from the UK and based on the most popular film scores of Hans Zimmer and John Williams, called The Music of Hans Zimmer vs John Williams. Conducted by the irrepressible showman Anthony Inglis, this thrilling concert is a fitting celebration of the very best scores from two of the greatest film composers of the 20th Century in one fabulous programme and accompanied by electrifying multi-coloured light and laser displays. Opening at the MasterCard Theatres at Marina Bay Sands on 10 March for 3 shows only, tickets are now on sale.

This incredible concert will feature nearly two hours of musical scores from movies such as Pirates of the Caribbean, The Dark Knight Rises, The Da Vinci Code, Batman Begins, Man of Steel, Gladiator, Inception, E.T., Harry Potter, Jurassic Park, Close Encounters, Star Wars and Superman just to name a few. Produced in association with Raymond Gubbay Ltd, the same company that brought the popular orchestral concert Star Wars and Beyond: The Iconic Film Scores of John Williams, into Singapore in 2016, each piece will be further brought to life by a magnificent light and laser display stunningly programmed to perfectly complement each musical score. This spectacular lighting display is designed by Durham Marengi who was appointed as the lighting designer for the Rio 2016 Olympic Opening and Closing Ceremonies.

Nothing can compare to the iconic film scores of two of the greatest composers of the 20th Century as Hans Zimmer and John Williams.

Hans Zimmer is a German composer and record producer. Since the 1980s, he has composed music for over 150 films. His works include The Lion King, for which he won Academy Award for Best Original Score in 1994, the Pirates of the Caribbean series, The Thin Red Line, Gladiator, The Last Samurai, The Dark Knight Trilogy, Inception, and Interstellar. Zimmer spent the early part of his career in the United Kingdom before moving to the United States. He is the head of the film music division at DreamWorks studios and works with other composers through the company that he founded, Remote Control Productions. Zimmer's works are notable for integrating electronic music sounds with traditional orchestral arrangements. He has received four Grammy Awards, three Classical BRIT Awards, two Golden Globes, and an Academy Award.

John Williams is an American composer, conductor, and pianist with a career spanning over six decades, John Williams has composed some of the most popular and recognizable film scores in cinematic history. From the first sinister bass notes of Jaws to the grandeur of Jurassic Park, from the emotion of E.T. to the mystery of Harry Potter, from the sublime Schindler's List to the sensational Superman, these magnificent music masterpieces remain as popular today as when first released. Crowning it all is Star Wars, as one of the most epic scores of all time.

About Anthony Inglis

Anthony Inglis, has been described in the UK press as “one of Britain’s most popular conductors” (Manchester Evening News). Upon leaving Marlborough College, he studied music at The Royal College of Music and now leads a busy international conducting career, appearing with some of the greatest orchestras in concert halls and recording studios around the world, including the Royal Albert Hall, where with over 250 conducting performances to his credit, he has been credited as the most frequent visiting artist. Among the orchestras he has conducted are the four main London independent orchestras (LSO, RPO, LPO and Philharmonia), all the British independent and most BBC orchestras, the Melbourne, Sydney, Gothenburg, Singapore symphony orchestras and the Warsaw and Israel Philharmonic Orchestras. He is currently Music Director of The National Symphony Orchestra in London and is Music Supervisor/Consultant for The Phantom of the Opera at Her Majesty’s Theatre, a show he has been with for 27 years.
