Marina Bay Sands and JJ Lin to stage concert After the Rain

The two-day performance will be the Singapore superstar's first in-person concert in two years and will raise funds for Community Chest

SINGAPORE (10 November 2021) – Marina Bay Sands and Singaporean superstar JJ Lin are teaming up for a good cause this November with After the Rain, a two-day concert in which ticket proceeds will go to vulnerable communities served by Community Chest.

To be held on 27 and 28 November at Sands Theatre, JJ Lin will perform live for invited guests and members of the public in a limited-capacity environment due to prevailing Safe Management Measures (SMM). The concert will also be streamed over JJ Lin's official YouTube, Weibo and Douyin channels on 28 November, for those who are unable to join him in person.

Proceeds from the ticket sales will be donated to Community Chest, a key beneficiary of Marina Bay Sands' Corporate Social Responsibility programme, Sands Cares.

Mr. Paul Town, Marina Bay Sands' Chief Operating Officer, said: "Marina Bay Sands is honoured to provide home-grown superstar JJ Lin a platform for such an inspiring cause. Given the current climate, we are heartened to be closing the year on a positive note through this collaborative effort that will bring much-needed cheer to communities in need."

The event holds significance for JJ Lin, as it will be his first in-person concert in two years since the Covid-19 pandemic began. Acknowledging that the pandemic has hurt the local music industry, JJ Lin said he wanted to support the local community, adding that 99 per cent of the musicians and crew involved in the concert are Singaporeans.

JJ shared: "I used to travel all over the world for work in the past. But the pandemic has slowed down the pace of life, so these past months have given me more time to spend with my family and to reflect on life and music. Covid-19 has had a significant impact on many people, both physically and mentally, and I hope that through my concert and music, I can provide a message of positivity, and that together we will be able to overcome these difficult times."

Audited Balloting Process

Due to the limited number of seats for sale, tickets for the two shows will be made available for the public to purchase through a ballot that will start on Tuesday, 16 November, 10:00 hours to 23:59 hours.

Tickets are sold in a pair, to align with revised seating configurations arising out of current SMM guidelines.

JJ Lin is best known for his smash hits 可惜沒如果 (If Only), 不為誰而作的歌 (Twilight) and 她說 (She Says). Since his debut in 2003, the singer-songwriter has been dominating the charts and selling out millions of albums in record-breaking time. Lin's vocal prowess and adept song-writing skills have amassed fans across the region, establishing him as one of Asia's top male pop stars who have shaped the 21st century Mandopop scene.

In 2004, Lin took home his first Golden Melody Awards (金曲獎) – 'Best New Artist' – for his debut album, 樂行者 (Music Voyager). Since then, the decorated singer has swept away multiple awards across music award shows including Beijing Music Awards, Global Chinese Music Awards and World Music Awards. Lin is also the holder of multiple Golden Melody Awards, the most coveted award in the Chinese music scene.

The Mandopop sensation last performed at Marina Bay Sands in February this year, giving an unprecedented performance atop the roof of the iconic ArtScience Museum as part of the launch of video-streaming service Disney+ in Singapore.
