Singapore (11 September 2012) – Trail blazing Mandarin and Cantonese pop singer, Eason Chan, will add to his successful series of world concerts with a much-anticipated return to Singapore on 20 and 21 October.

He will be staging two outdoor performances as part of his Eason Chan Singapore Concert 2012 at Marina Bay Sands' Event Plaza – marking the first time the Hong Kong superstar is belting out his medley of Cantonese and Mandarin songs under the stars in Singapore.

The outdoor venue will be transformed into an extravaganza of grand lighting, state-of-the-art sound and staging, and high-definition screens, amid the captivating night views of the Singapore city skyline. Tickets, ranging from S$85 to S$285, are on sale from today.

Eason's world tour started in September 2010, beginning with Singapore as his first stop, and ran through major cities in Australia, United States, Canada, Taipei and China. In April, Eason made history by becoming the first Chinese performer to play at the O2 Arena in London, with tickets snapped up in around 20 minutes and attracting some 12,000 fans to his concert.

With the tour almost coming to an end, Eason will revisit Singapore and Marina Bay Sands to present an electrifying performance for the Eason Chan Singapore Concert 2012. The concert will present Eason's interpretations of humans' range of emotions and diverse perceptions of reality and their inner worlds.

Known for his high-energy performance and unique style of singing, Eason is undoubtedly one of the most prominent male singers in Hong Kong's music industry. He started his singing career with Cantonese songs and later swept Asia's music scene by storm with his Mandarin classics. With more than 30 critically acclaimed Mandarin and Cantonese pop music albums, the talented artist has also starred in more than 20 films.

Winner of countless music awards, Eason is only the second non-Taiwanese singer to win the renowned Taiwan's Golden Melody Award, clinching the "Best Male Singer" in 2003 and "Best Album" in 2003 and 2009. Also Hong Kong's highest selling male artist in 2002, 2003, and 2007 to 2011, some of Eason's signature hits include 十年, 淘汰, k 哥之王 and 不如不见.

The Eason Chan Singapore Concert 2012 concert, with tickets available for either seats or standing areas, will start at 8pm on both days.
